

PANEL DISCUSSION

THE WAR ON SEX

Tuesday, November 7th, 2017

11:10 AM

Room 3212, St Francis College

180 Remsen St, Brooklyn

Co-editor Trevor Hoppe (Assistant Professor of Sociology, University at Albany) will join contributors Judith Levine (author of Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children from Sex) and Mary Anne Case (Arnold I. Shure Professor of Law, University of Chicago) for a panel discussion on the criminalization of sex.

This event is free and open to the public. Reception to follow.

Full of thoughtful, carefully researched essays, The War on Sex will support readers in classrooms and social movements to understand and strategize about the relationships among sex, criminalization, poverty, disability, and contemporary politics. We need this book right now."

— Dean Spade, author of Normal Life: Administrative Violence, Critical Trans Politics, and the Limits of Law

Trevor Hoppe is the author of Punishing Disease (University of California Press) and co-editor of The War on Sex (Duke University Press). He is currently assistant professor of sociology at the University at Albany, SUNY.

Mary Anne Case is Arnold I. Shure Professor of Law at the University of Chicago. Before joining the University of Chicago Law School faculty, Case litigated for Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison in New York; and was professor of law at the University of Virginia.

Judith Levine is a nonfiction author and memoirist, journalist, commentator, and speaker. Her areas of interest include sex, gender, and race, moral panic, and criminal justice. She is the author of four books, including Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children from Sex.
